Fuck

Oh, hey, it's all better now

We'll sleep well tonight

Days on end, the end of days

Tucked in alibis

We're the unforgiven

Trapped in the tradition

Pretending to be living

We're the unforgiven...

...the state of affairs and a union of distress

lying in a passive state in the state of undress

We're the unforgiven

Trapped in the tradition

Pretending to be living

Forgive and forget
